

Please do not overturn New Jersey's "Do Not Call" rules.
Telemarketers invade our privacy even with these rules in place and I do not appreciate calls on Sundays, at dinner time, or at any time for that matter. Free enterprise is one thing but telemarketing has expanded to the point of harassment. If anything the rules should be made stringent.